A. P. Thomas

TO THE MEMORY OF
Amos Russell Thomas, M. D.

OUR LATE DEAN, PROFESSOR, COUNSELOR AND FRIEND

In admiration of his unostentatious erudition, and appreciation of his renown as a medical teacher; in veneration of his tireless and intelligent devotion to the interests of our ALMA MATER, by which he was so largely instrumental in elevating her to a proud position of leadership among American Medical Schools; and not less in grateful remembrance of the unfailing kindness of his nature, WE, the last of the many who were privileged to enjoy the benefits of his Forty Years of Service as Professor of Anatomy,

DEDICATE THIS CLASS BOOK

in the hope, and with mutual pledge, that his example shall be to us an inspiration to lofty purpose and unselfish deeds.
